

The RUGBY CLUB presents

THE GREG DAVIS STORY

PRIVATE SCREENING

A documentary about a 23 year old Kiwi who arrived unheralded at Drummoyne District Rugby Club in 1963. He would go on to play 39 test matches for Australia, 16 as captain and at the peak of his career was regarded as one of the finest loose forwards in the world. Just as quietly as he arrived, he returned home to New Zealand in 1973. Within 6 years he was to die of a brain tumor leaving behind a wife and 3 young children.

A film by Ross and Mitch Wall
